

Children in the Netherlands believe that St. Nicholas arrives on a white horse. They leave their shoes out for him to fill with toys and candy on the eve of his day, December 6th.